Next Meeting: Wednesday 20th November, NOT Thursday

Pres. Heather extended a warm welcome to Rotarians Russell Anderson, Graeme Nelson, Bryan Griffiths, Ray Lewis and Noel Lucas, guests, Stewart and Pam McDonald and Rotary partners Robyn Lucas and Jeanette Nelson.

We missed the company of Rotarians Joe Flynn and Noel Schier

Grace was said by Graeme Nelson and the Toast proposed by Ray Lewis.

Philippines Disaster:

PP Ray is to investigate ways the Club may assist those affected by the devastation of Typhoon Haiyan. PP Graeme advised that Jo Speight has been in contact with former exchange student Sarah Dia-Ammo. Sarah and her family are safe, having relocated from the devastated area only days before the typhoon hit.

Court House:

PP Ray is to prepare an updated report for Heritage Victoria. Work continues at the Court House with the Brickies and Plumbers on site this week.

FAARSE:

PP Russell has contacted BOC and Elgas regarding possible sponsorship at next year's event.

New Generations:

PP Russell will contact the Secondary College with information about the Youth In Sailing program which is to replace the Festival of Sail.

Russell is also to make contact with RYPEN students Emma & Megan, inviting them to attend a meeting.

ROADEC:

A course held over last weekend was most successful. Parents who have contacted PP Graeme have been very positive in their comments.

A second group of students from Kalianna will be attending ROADEC over the next fortnight.

Graeme is to meet with representatives of Elmore Events Centre Committee to discuss the potential use of the ROADEC classroom. The Committee propose that bi-fold doors be installed between the two rooms providing a large area that could be used as a Boardroom. It is also proposed that the present storeroom be converted into a kitchen and a link be built between the two existing buildings thus allowing access to toilet facilities. The Club moved to give PP Graeme authority to negotiate these changes with the Events Committee.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Ray and Moira. Justine, who has been travelling extensively through SE Asia over the past months has been admitted to hospital in Thailand suffering Dengue Fever. We wish her a speedy recovery.
