Next Meeting - Venue Change: Rocky Pizza, Moore Street.

In the absence of Pres. Heather who departed this morning on an Eyes Wide Open tour to Cambodia with 4 students from Rochester Secondary College, VP Graeme extended a warm welcome to Rotarians Russell Anderson, Joe Flynn, Ray Lewis, Noel Schier and Noel Lucas, Visitors Stewart & Pam McDonald, Rotary partners Robyn Lucas and Jeanette Nelson

We missed the company of Sec Bryan.

Grace was said by Russell Anderson and the Toast proposed by Noel Lucas.

Welcome home to PP Ray Lewis who returned last week from Thailand accompanied by daughter Justine. It was pleasing to hear that Justine is now on the road to recovery. Ray was very thankful for the help they had received from the Rotary Club of Chiang Mai South and in particular from the Club Secretary Kittypop Polska. Kittypop, along with two other Rotarians, one of whom is a doctor, visited Justine in the Lanna Hospital, assuring staff they were family members and assisted in having her transferred to Bangkok to the Bumrungrad International Hospital. Ray was also grateful for the assistance given by DFAT.

New Generations:

New Generations District Chair, Gabrielle Morgan notified Pres. Heather of the unexpected withdrawal of an applicant from the NYSF group. The subsequent vacancy has been offered to our previously interviewed applicant Carli Windridge. Carli was told of the offer and accepted before flying off to Cambodia with Pres. Heather.

Court House:

The inside repair work has now been completed, the stormwater drains repaired and the soil around the building levelled. Excess soil is still to be removed and it is expected that repairs to the floor will commence next week.

RYLA:

Last Thursday, Nov. 28th, Noel and Robyn with Teachers for Timor representatives, Kim and Melanie attended the RYLA Dinner held at the Oasis Camp, Mt Evelyn. Luis and Alberto were having a great time and had made many friends amongst the team leaders, facilitators and participants. They were very grateful for the opportunity to attend the Program. Alberto was able to meet with and thank George Mackey from RC Melbourne Central Sunrise for the sponsorship given him.
